Dear Nancy:

I thought I would advise you of things to come:

I am writing a one page NEWSLETTER, and Susan Csacky, (Univ. of Ky.) is Xeroxing some materials on the SCHOLARSHIP program. It will be two pages, I believe.

We may also have an insert about the Institute, so there will probably be 4 pages to go out in one letter.

This will be a mailing to all people in the Southeastern-- not just the members, so I thought you might want to be getting the envelopes addressed.

Susan will send her materials to you, and I will send my letter to you just as soon as I call Peyton and see if he wants to include a Preliminary announcement or if he would prefer waiting.

Anyway, you should hear from me around the middle of the month.

Peyton has spent many hours on the Institute and it certainly sounds like it will be a big success.

Hope everything is going fine with you.

I am having fun making a list of our sets on 3 x 5 cards.
Finding all of our books will be a major concern--4 or 5 storage places and then the big move from the regular library plus two large gifts from lawyers. I am sure no one will envy my job. I am not sure I am ready for it, either.

I will write again soon. Thank -
Pearl

P.S. Would you also be good enough to make reservations for the S.E. Chapter at Seattle meeting?

You seem to be able to handle reservations very easily, and I thought you might like the people in charge of that meeting and see what we might get.

The luncheons seem better attended than breakfasts, so see if you can set up a luncheon meeting for us, please.

Thanks for your usual assistance.
